RELEASE OF LIABILITY FORM

Under Alabama law, an equine activity sponsor equine professional is not liable for an injury to or the death of a participant in equine activities resulting from the inherent risks of equine activities, pursuant to the Equine Activities Protection Act. Recognizing the fact that there is potential for an accident where horse use is involved, which can cause injuries to horses, riders and spectators and also recognizing the fact that the Hodges Saddle Club, Hodges Equestrian Park, R.B.C. Trail and Campgrounds, Town of Hodges, owner John Bo Williams and all landowners including Officers, Directors, City Council Members or any other employee of the Town of Hodges are not necessarily aware of, and do not in any way represent the condition of the trails or the experience levels of the riders or horses taking part in trail rides or organized events. I do hereby release and hold harmless each of the abovenamed for any claim or right in damages which might occur to me, my minor children or horses.

Any images taken at the Hodges Equestrian Park, Rock Bridge Canyon Park or trails or functions becomes the sole property of the Hodges Equestrian Park to promote the equestrian park and can be submitted for publicity, website content, advertising, etc., if you, your minor children, horse or personal equipment is/are filmed or photographed at a function, the image belongs to the photographer, and you agree to agree to have your image displayed.

I verify that I have an up to date negative Coggins test that is less than a year old on the horse or mule that I am riding today on the trails.

As a participant in the Bud's Ride Til You Die Endurance Ride, I agree to abide by AERC Rules. I understand that the sport involves being in remote areas for extended periods of time, far from communications, transportation and medical facilities, that these areas have natural and manmade hazards, which ride management cannot anticipate, identify, modify or eliminate, that horses can be excitable, difficult to control and unpredictable and accidents can happen to anyone at any time. I accept responsibility for myself and the animal that I ride. I hold ride management, AERC, all personnel and property owners including the State of Alabama, blameless and free from all liability for injury or loss that might occur due to my participation in this ride. This release is valid for my animals, personal belongings, family or guest in my company. This release applies for the entire ride until departure. I have read and understand this release.
