Should a horse require special emergency treatment, payment is the responsibility of the rider and will be handled individually by the attending veterinarian.

Our Ride Crew: GCER members and volunteers working the ride are all unpaid and here to help keep this sport alive and the ride running smoothly. Please treat everyone including your fellow riders with respect. If you have any concerns, please contact Ride Management.

AERC Sanctioning: The Gold Country Endurance Ride is sanctioned by the American Endurance Ride Conference. Several times during the ride there will be veterinary checks to minimize the risk of stress and/or injury. Equines will be monitored for physical reactions including lameness, pulse/respiration recovery and dehydration. Those not meeting the parameters will be pulled from the ride. The first horse to finish in satisfactory physical condition is the overall winner. Due to the strenuous nature of this sport, drugs of any kind are prohibited in all equines participating in any ride. The ride is open to all breeds of horses and mules. Ride management will provide equal opportunities, treatment and judgment to all competitors.

Base Camp: Dru Barner Equestrian Park -- located just a few miles from Camp Virner which is on Wentworth Springs Road above Georgetown. The base camp is a beautiful, heavily wooded forest. The elevation is 3200 feet. There have been roads cut into the forest and there are plenty of graveled places to park rigs. Some campsites have corrals on a first-come first-served basis. There is plenty of water for the horses, but riders need to bring in their own drinking water. We ask that all hay and manure be scattered and all personal garbage be taken with you.

Directions:

1. From Auburn, take Hwy 49 to Cool.
2. Turn left at Hwy 193 and proceed to the town of Georgetown.
3. Turn left at the stop sign (Wentworth Springs Road) in downtown Georgetown.
4. Drive for approximately 5-1/4 miles and watch for the turn-off to the left to Dru Barner Park.
  - a. If you get to Camp Virner on Wentworth Springs Road, you passed the turn-off and need to go back about 1/2 mile.
5. Follow the road / ribbons to base camp which is approximately 1.5 miles down a paved road.

Trail: The 25 and 50-mile rides are both "moderate" rides. Both consist of a few tough climbs, with a combination of trail and back forest roads.

The 25-mile ride is a loop with one vet check out on the trail at Darling Ridge. The vet check is not accessible to crews, but the club will provide plenty of food and drinks for horses and riders.
